

A BRAND NEW ARTS HUB UNLIKE ANYTHING LANSING HAS SEEN BEFORE

STAGE ONE

GRAND OPENING WEEKEND

Never before in Lansing has a 100-200 seat affordable stage been made available to community theater groups and artists of all kinds. Come celebrate the grand opening of a brand new arts hub that is the result of a partnership between Sycamore Creek Church's Eastwood campus and community theater groups: Peppermint Creek Theater Company, Ixion Ensemble, and Hope Central Urban Arts. The basement of Stage One is also opening as an incubator kitchen for food business startups.
